Daley, Koster & LaVallee (DKL) was founded to provide clients with the highest quality of representation with a strong personal commitment. "Our clients are more than just business relationships," says managing partner Paul Koster. "They are people we care about on a personal level."

Firm clients agree. "My experience working with DKL is that they are not only outstanding lawyers, but quality people who make us feel more like personal friends than business clients," says Ola Smith, CEO, McKinney Community Health Center.

THREE RISING STARS Prior to opening DKL, Paul Koster chaired the governmental liability practice group at a nearly 90 attorney law firm. He is a former staff attorney for the United States Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit and former member of the faculty at Emory University School of Law.

Cynthia Matthews Daley currently serves as a magistrate judge in Carroll County. She formerly co-chaired the employment practice group at a law firm with nearly 90 attorneys, and in 2001 clerked for the Honorable Justice Hugh P. Thompson of the Georgia Supreme Court. "Practicing law is more than just billing hours," says Daley. "It is about taking care of those who have put their trust in us."

"THESE LAWYERS ARE THE CREAM OF THE CROP."

— Sheila Brockman,
Sunlink Health Systems

Matthew LaVallee worked almost four years in the Civil Rights Division of the State of Georgia's Attorney General's Office. He currently serves as a Special Assistant Attorney General and is a certified Contract Advisor with the National Football League Players Association. "We are intimately involved in every aspect of resolving our clients' issues," he says. "Getting the job done for our clients is what we are all about."

AREAS OF PRACTICE

- Employment Law
- Governmental Liability
